Whereof all Perſons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themſelves accordingly.

Hen. Fane.

Lisbon, May 3. Abraham Caſtres, Eſq; his Britannick Majeſty's Envoy Extraordinary at this Court, died here Yeſterday, and will be interred To-morrow, in the burying Ground belonging to his Britannick Majeſty's Subjects, according to his own Deſire. His Pall is to be ſupported by Eight of the Principal Perſons of the Factory. The Body will be attended by his Houſhold Servants; and the Secretary of State has offered a Guard of Horſe to accompany it.

Madrid, May 10. The King has received Advice, by an extraordinary Diſpatch from the Preſident of the Board of the Indian Trade at Cadiz, that, on the 30th of laſt Month, his Majeſty's Frigate the Nueſtra Senora de la Conception, and a Merchant Ship called the Victorioſo, anchored in that Bay, the former on her Return from Carthagena, and the latter from Vera Cruz. The Cargo of the firſt, belonging to his Majeſty and the Merchants, conſiſts of 629195 hard Dollars in Silver, and in coined and wrought Gold; 964 C. of Sugar, 1216 C. of Shells, 52 C. ½ of Woad, 553 Fur Skins, 762 Quintals of Cocoa Nuts, with other Fruits and Effects. The Cargo of the Victorioſo conſiſts of 39156 Dollars, 2011 C. ¾ of Cochineal, 1643 C. ¼ of Woad, 321 C. of Jallop Root, 3392 C. of Sugar, 393 C. of Tobacco in Rolls, 107 C. ¾ of Cocoa Nuts, 1944 tanned Hides, 1064 Quintals of Copper, 500 Quintals of Campechy Wood, and other Effects.

Camp before Prague, May 18. Since the 11th Inſtant, a great Number of Deſerters have come in. The Priſoners are ſent to Budin, and, by all Accounts, the Victory has been more compleat than was at firſt apprehended. The King of Pruſſia has ſent Detachments beyond the Beraun. They met with no Reſiſtance, every Thing in that Part of the Country having been abandoned by the Auſtrians. The Troops that fled that Way were diſperſed, and many of them have ſtraggled into the Upper Palatinate, and neighbouring Countries. Thoſe beyond the Saſawa are ſaid to be aſſembling at Beneſchau, but their Number is not yet conſiderable. The only Army we hear of, is that of Count Daun, which advanced from Konigingratz towards Boemiſchbrod; but, upon the Approach of the Detachment commanded by the Prince of Bevern, retired, and now occupies a ſtrong Poſt between Suchdol and Kuttenberg. Count Daun's Army is ſaid to be augmented to 25 or 30,000; and the King of Pruſſia has reinforced the Prince of Bevern's Detachment, which is at Krzib, within one Mile and half of the Enemy. Lieutenant Colonel Meyer, Commander of an independent Battalion, was detached the Day after the Battle, with one Battalion of Pruſſian Pandours, and 400 Huſſars, to deſtroy the Magazine at Pilſen, in which he has ſucceeded: That Magazine is ſaid to be very conſiderable and valuable. He has likewiſe burnt ſeveral leſſer Magazines, and is ſince gone into the Upper Palatinate. Col. Meyer's Conduct is greatly applauded, as what he has done will effectually cut off the Succours the Auſtrians might have expected from the Empire; which, if they ſhould march, cannot now find Subſiſtance. In Prague every Thing is very quiet, hardly a Cannon Shot fired; they are buſy in Repairing the Ramparts and Parapets. The Pruſſians are active and vigilant: They have raiſed Redoubts and Flêches in the proper Places to to harraſs the Beſieged, if they ſhould attempt to come out. Theſe little Forts are joined by Lines caſt up in ſuch Places where the Ground admits of them, and in a very few Days the Bombardment will begin.

Cologne, May 30. The Regiment of Vaubecourt marched Yeſterday with the Duke d'Havré. This Day Roche Aimont followed, and to Morrow the Royal Grenadiers of Solare. They go to Hattinguen, there to be joined by four Regiments of Horſe, and the Huſſars, as alſo by the 6000 Palatines, if the Court of Manheim will permit them to ſtir, which ſeems not yet determined; and, it is ſaid, they are to march under the Command of M. de Chevert to Caſſel, to make a Diverſion on that Side. The Head Quarters of the French have been ever ſince the 25th at Munſter, and, by the Movements of the ſeveral Camps, it appears as if Marſhal d'Eſtrées was determined to advance towards the Weſer, having ordered ſeveral Roads to be made for the March of the Army. This Day arrived here 50 battering Cannon, with 15000 Bombs and Balls, eſcorted by two Batallions of Royal Artillery. The Cannon are to proceed directly; but the Bombs, and the the greateſt Part of the Balls, are to wait the Arrival of another Diviſion of Artillery, conſiſting alſo of Bombs, Bullets, Mortars, &c. and then to proceed together. One Batallion of Cone, and Royal Allemand, Horſe, have paſſed here this Day.

Admiralty Office, June 4.

Extract of a Letter from Capt. Hood, Commander of His Majeſty's Ship Antelope. Dated Spithead, June 1, 1757.

On the 13th of May A. M. in Lat. 47 D. 50 M. I ſaw three Sail to Windward, and gave Chace to them. At Noon they brought to, hoiſted French Colours, and made Signals to one another; and, upon my hoiſting French Colours alſo, they made Sail, and edged down to me. About One o'Clock the largeſt Ship hoiſted a Pendant, and fired a Gun to Leeward, and about Half an Hour after another; which not being anſwered by me, ſhe ſoon after fired two Shot, hawl'd her Mainſail up, took in her Top-gallant Sails, and bore directly down, being then not two Miles off. Upon which I hoiſted my proper Colours, and ſhortened Sail to the Foreſail and Topſail, expecting to be attacked; but, in a few Minutes after, ſhe hawled up, and made all the Sail ſhe could. The other two, one a Frigate-like Ship, the other a Snow, continued before the Wind. I purſued the War-like Ship as faſt as poſſible, and before Four was within point-blank Shot of her. About 20 Minutes after we brought our Broadſide to bear, and was very cloſe, and kept a continual Fire upon her till 40 Minutes after Five, when we had the Breakers ſo near under our Lee, that we could not wear, and had but barely Room to ſtay clear of the Enemy; but ſhe came about, and while in Stays, the French Ship ſtruck upon the Rocks, and loſt her Mizen Maſt. I ſtood off for near an Hour, to put the Ship in a workable State; then ſtood in again, with an Intention to run as cloſe to the Enemy as poſſible, in order to deſtroy her; but found that Buſineſs to Appearance done; as ſhe had beat over a Ridge of Rocks, which were too far without her for me to do her further Injury. Where the French Ship ſtruck, is the North Part of Hodierne Bay. I had three Men killed and 13 wounded, and much ſhattered in my Rigging and Sails, the mizen Maſt ſhot through.

On the 24th I took a ſmall Snow from Bourdeaux for Canada, with Wine, Brandy and Flour; and the next Day a ſmall Privateer of 6 Guns, 10 Swivels, and 50 Men, that came out of Port Louis the Evening before, and was the Snow in Company with the Man of War the Day I drove her on Shore, whoſe Captain and Officers give the following Account of her: That ſhe was called the Aquilon, mounting 48 Guns, but pierced for 56, and had on board 450 Men, 30 of whom were killed and 25 wounded; in the latter was the Captain: That the Rocks were through her Bottom in ſeveral Places, and that ſhe was irrecoverably loſt.

Dr. ANDERSON's, or, The Famous SCOTS PILLS;

ARE faithfully prepared only by JAMES INGLISH, Son of DAVID INGLISH, deceaſed, at the Unicorn, over-againſt the New Church in the Strand, London; and to prevent Counterfeits from Scotland, as well as in and about London, you are deſired to take Notice, That the true Pills have their Boxes ſealed on the Top (in black Wax) with a Lyon Rampant, and Three Mullets Argent, Dr. Anderſon's Head betwixt I. I. with his Name round it, and Iſabella Engliſh underneath the Shield in a Scroll. They are of excellent Uſe in all Caſes where Purging is neceſſary, and may be taken with Epſom, Tunbridge, or other Medicinal Waters.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Diſtempers, publiſhed by Virtue of His MAJESTY's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thouſand Caſes) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulſions, Light-headedneſs, and the worſt Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Doſe is generally ſufficient to perform a Cure. *

It is likewiſe a moſt effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleuriſies, Quincies, acute Rheumatiſms, and the Lowneſs of Spirits, and Uneaſineſſes proceeding from ſlow and latent Fevers, which are generally miſtaken for Vapours and Hyſterics; and a ſingle Doſe remarkably ſtops the Progreſs of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Conſequences ariſing from that very common Diſorder, the Source of almoſt all Diſtempers.

This Powder (which is a very ſafe and pleaſant Medicine to take) is ſold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, over-againſt the North Door of the Church, at 2 s. 6 d. the two Doſes, with good Allowance to thoſe who buy it for charitable Uſes, or to ſell again.

* See a Diſſertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Diſtempers, ſold at the Place above-mentioned. Price 6 d.
